OLPH Mission/Thrift Store A Community Program

Statement of Purpose:

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Mission is established as an outreach ministry of Holy Family Catholic Parish in cooperation with Catholic Charities of the Diocese of La Crosse, Christ Lutheran Church (ELCA) of Arcadia, in the corporal works of mercy which are signs of love for our brothers and sisters.

Financial Assistance:

- * General Assistance Fund
- * Our Lady of Lourdes Fund for sick children and their families

Megan receives treatment at Gillette in St. Paul, MN., Gunderson Lutheran in La Crosse and University Hospital in Madison. Our Lady of Lourdes Fund helps the family with medical expenses. This availability of support eases family concerns.

Mission/Thrift Store:

A clothing and household items store provides clothing and small household items for those in Arcadia and the surrounding areas. The Mission/Thrift Store is staffed by volunteers who believe that giving of their time and talent carries out the commission of Christ, "Whatsoever you do for my brothers and sisters, that you do for me." Indeed, the entire community reaches out with this same belief and attitude as they make donations of clothing, shoes, household items, toys, books, educational resources, furniture and money. The store is open on Monday mornings, Wednesday afternoons, and Friday evenings.

Display Rooms include:

- Infant/Toddler/Children's Clothing
- Women's Attire
- Men's Attire
- Books, Videos, Religious Articles
- Hats, Shoes, Purses, and Other Accessories
- Toys, Kitchen Wares, Small Household Items, Seasonal Items
